

January 21, 1983

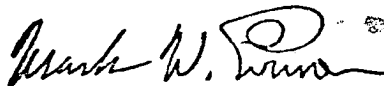

Dear Mr. Meese:

Attached is the "Brain Trust" Commissions concept paper by Charles Wick which you requested in your meeting Tuesday with Messrs. Baker, Deaver, Harper, and Wick.

The Director left this morning for Cincinnati and was unable to review a final draft of his paper.

Director Wick will return to Washington tomorrow morning and be in his office by 9:30 a.m. He will leave Washington Sunday at 1:30 p.m. for a conference on the President's International Youth Exchange Initiative in Williamsburg. He asked me to convey to you his availability to meet with you during this period, if you so wish, or to review any questions by telephone at your convenience.

Sincerely,

Mark W. Everson
Special Projects Officer

The Honorable
Edwin Meese, III
Counsellor to the President
The White House

cc: The Honorable James A. Baker, III
The Honorable Michael K. Deaver
The Honorable Edwin L. Harper